TEACHING

Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM), Malaysia's first university obtained the accreditation of Teacher Education Accreditation Council (TEAC) Washington, USA

Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) makes another breakthrough as the first university in the country to receive accreditation from an international body, the Teacher Education Accreditation Council (TEAC), based in Washington DC, USA recently.

Vice Chancellor of UPM, Prof. Dato' Dr. Hj. Mohd Fauzi Ramlan said that the recognition achieved by the Faculty of Educational Studies makes UPM the first university in Southeast Asia to receive accreditation for the bachelor of education programs. TEAC accreditation is an achievement of excellence in education that takes into account the performance of the graduates in classrooms and during the teacher training programs, other than the professionalism in teaching among academic staff in UPM.

TEAC founded in 1997, is an international accreditation body which aimed at monitoring and making continuous improvements for the degree programs for professional educators. TEAC's goal is to support the preparation of competent, caring and qualified professional educators.

This was announced by James G. Cibulka, the President of the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) in Bethesda, Maryland USA website www.teac.org on May 7. Besides UPM, two other international universities were also recognized, namely Cambridge College (MA) and Hawai'i Pacific University.

Prof. Dato' Dr. Mohd Fauzi said that the accreditation process involved a comprehensive process in terms of reporting and monitoring that has been conducted for three years to meet all the standard criteria set by TEAC.

Among these criteria are quality teaching and learning, setting of challenging standards, monitoring and continuous improvement in bachelor of education programs as well as a challenge in the teaching profession for instructors. Also, another major contributing factor is the collaboration between instructors, faculty members and UPM in general with students in each academic program.

He added, "Any university that has received the award must go through the process of monitoring by TEAC for five consecutive years to maintain the accreditation certification. Accreditation received for the bachelor of education programs continues to put UPM as a university that excels in producing graduates in the bachelor of education programs at the international level and will remain committed to providing quality education to students.

UPM universiti Asia pertama peroleh akreditasi TEAC

KUALA LUMPUR 6 Jun - Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) menjadi institusi pengajian tinggi pertama di Asia yang menerima akreditasi untuk program pendidikan guru daripada badan antarabangsa, Majlis Akreditasi Pendidikan Guru (TEAC) yang berpusat di Amerika Syarikat (AS).

Pengiktirafan itu meletakkan program pendidikan guru di UPM setanding dengan program serupa di beberapa buah universiti terkemuka AS yang mendapat akreditasi TEAC seperti University of Virginia, University of Nebraska, University of Michigan, Temple University dan Rutgers University.

Naib Canselor UPM, Prof. Datuk Dr. Fauzi Ramlan berkata, pemberian akreditasi tersebut melibatkan proses komprehensif yang telah dijalankan selama tiga tahun bagi memenuhi kriteria standard TEAC iaitu badan yang diiktiraf oleh Jabatan Pendidikan AS dan Majlis Akreditasi Pendidikan Tinggi negara itu.

"Universiti yang menerima pengiktirafan tersebut perlu melalui proses pemantauan secara berterusan oleh TEAC selama lima tahun berturut-turut bagi mengekalkan pengiktirafan akreditasi yang diterima.

"Penganugerahan yang diterima bagi program Ijazah Pendidikan, Fakulti Pengajian Pendidikan itu menjadikan UPM sebagai institusi pengajian yang cemerlang dalam melahirkan graduan di peringkat antarabangsa," katanya dalam satu kenyataan di sini hari ini.

Sijil akreditasi berkenaan disampaikan oleh Presiden Majlis Pentauliahan Persediaan Pengajar (CAEP), James G. Cibulka di Washington, AS, baru-baru ini.

Tambah Fauzi, pihaknya akan terus terus komited untuk memberikan pendidikan berkualiti kepada pelajar seiring dengan pembangunan sistem pendidikan negara ke arah menjana modal insan bermutu tinggi dan berdaya saing.
