Dr. Roshafiza Hassan is a senior lecturer at the Department of Foundations of Education, Faculty of Educational Studies, Universiti Putra Malaysia. She received her early education in Bera and continued her higher secondary education at SMKA Tengku Ampuan Hajjah Afzan Pahang, Jerantut, Pahang. She furthered her studies at Perlis Matriculation College. An alumna of the University of Malaya (UM) with a Bachelor of Business Administration, she worked at CIMB in the customer service department. She later studied Educational Administration for her Master of Science program at Universiti Putra Malaysia. While doing a master's degree, she was also actively involved in various research projects as a Research Assistant within the field of educational administration, such as the evaluation of teaching and learning for the National Education Blueprint 2012, leadership issues in higher education, teacher development and craft knowledge, and LINUS for the lower primary school students in remote areas. She has experience as a demonstrator for research methods in education, statistics in education, and educational leadership courses at the Faculty of Educational Studies, UPM. She joined Baseerah International School, Gombak, as a teacher and moderator for Cambridge IGCSE students. Due to her deep interest in educational research, she decided to further her Ph.D. in educational administration at Universiti Putra Malaysia. She completed her doctoral degree from Universiti Putra Malaysia and was appointed a lecturer at Open University Malaysia until May 2023. Her areas of expertise are educational administration, entrepreneurship in education, and statistics.
